

COSTA RICA

JUNGLES, FORESTS, VOLCANOES AND ADRENALINE!

If there's a Garden of Eden in Central America, Costa Rica is it. Well-known for the diversity of flora and fauna in its dense tropical forests, the province also boasts beautiful beaches and world-class resorts to enjoy this other-worldly destination to the fullest. Visitors fall in love with the Rincon de la Vieja National Park and its relaxing hot springs, as well as the dozens of rivers carving their way through white volcanic ash from previous eruptions. Thrill-seekers can take an ATV excursion in the government-protected forests and jungles, or get a bigger adrenaline rush with canopy tours through the treetops via zip line.

There are also unforgettable excursions to the rainforests and to the greenery surrounding the iconic Arenal Volcano, as well as white water rafting escapades through both rapids and gentler currents. Your clients are sure to be inspired by Costa Rica's breathtaking splendor, and the memories of the "pura vida" lifestyle will stay with them for the rest of their days.
